Dear Dr. Chaturvedi;

I am pleased to invite you to visit Calgary during the summer of 2005 for a period of 40 days to perform research in the area of intelligent control of synchronous generators in my laboratory at the University of Calgary, Calgary, Alberta, Canada. I will provide you with return airfare between New Delhi, India and Calgary, Canada for this purpose.

Please arrange a suitable visa from the Canadian High Commission in India for the trip.

Sincerely,

O.P. Malik
